

How to Sign Up for a Dance Competition in the Czech Republic

- Go to the website of the Czech Dance Sport Federation at www.csts.cz
- The English version of the website doesn't work well – if you need to translate the website into English, do so in your browser.
- The first step on the website is to register a user account. On the right side of the page, you will see the option "User Login." There, select "New user registration."
Warning - do not use the option 'I want to be a member'!

(If you already have a user account on this website, skip this step and log in.)

The screenshot shows the homepage of the Czech Dance Sports Association. The header includes the logo and the name "Czech Dance Sports Association" with the hashtag #danciscsts. A navigation menu contains: Information, Membership base, Competitions, Representation, Section, Media, Advertising, Links, Contacts. A "Current" section features an article titled "Patron of Children - Let's help children play sports" with a "Read more" link. On the right, a "User login" form is visible, containing fields for "Email address:" and "Password:", a "Log" button, and two radio button options: "New user registration" (which is circled in red) and "Forgotten password". Below the login form, a red banner with the text "I want to be a member" is crossed out with a red 'X'. Other elements include a "Důležité informace" button, "Etická komise" section, and "Results at WDSF competitions" table.

Tip for You!

Seniors can also compete in younger categories in the Czech Republic. So, if you're traveling to us, you can compete more than once, but you can compete in a maximum of four categories. For example, a SEN III dancer can also compete in SEN II and SEN I. Additionally, someone in class E can compete in class D and C as well. However, B class dancers are limited to only B. Be careful – SEN I STT and SEN I LAT are two separate categories.

We look forward to seeing you on the dance floor!
